"The more I give to thee, the more I have, for both are infinite."

William Shakespeare, Romeo and Juliet

День закоханих – Valentine's Day

Valentine's Day is the day of love. On February 14, more than any other day of the year, romantic couples shower their better half with gifts and tokens of appreciation. The first Valentine's Day card dates to 1415 when the Duke of Orléans sent a card to his wife while he was he was a prisoner in the Tower of London.

In the United States, Valentine's Day cards didn't gain popularity until the Revolutionary War, when people took up the habit of writing handwritten notes to their sweethearts. It was only in the early 1900s that cards were mass produced for the holiday. Whether you celebrate Valentine's Day or not (by choice, fate, or otherwise), our ability to love has connected humans for centuries—from the Romans to today we all enjoy treating (and being treated by) those we love.
